RIVAA Full Member Application Form

RIVAA membership is open to visual artists working in any medium, at least 18 years old, preferably living or having lived on Roosevelt Island.

The application is a juried process, in which applicants bring 5 artworks (in physical form, rather than shown on a screen) and the completed application form to a member meeting, which occurs at the gallery on the 3rd Tuesday of each month at 8 PM. Applicants speak about themselves and their work and answer any questions. After the applicants leave, a vote is taken on admission.

Full membership is granted upon payment of dues. RIVAA has a one-time membership fee of $380 and subsequently yearly dues of $255. Full Members current on their dues are entitled to vote and participate in general membership meetings. Full Members current on their dues and participation requirements are eligible to exhibit in group exhibitions, have a solo exhibition, and be a candidate to run for the Board of Directors. There are at least 3 member exhibitions per year - typically during the months of December, March, and in the summer. There may be additional opportunities to show work, and members can apply to have a solo exhibition in the gallery after being a member in good standing for one year. Full members receive an 80% commission on artwork sales.

RIVAA is volunteer-run, and members are expected to meet participation requirements to be in good standing. One of the primary ways of earning participation requirements is to sit in the gallery for a 3-hour shift to keep the gallery open for visitors. This is required once to twice per month. Members are also required to join a committee.
